Terms

Rates are negotiable and will be presented in contract before the work begins.

50% is due in advance, with the rest before delivery of final goods (web gallery)

Longer assignments could dictate a lesser rate

From time to time heninger fotografik will perform, as an in-kind donation, fund-raising photo shoots and products for select non-profit organizations. The prices reflected in such commercial work represents a significant discount on time, effort and services by the photographer to make the images accessible as a fund-raising opportunity for the chosen organization.
